

Loeb School offers free resume writing workshop

The Nackey S. Loeb School of Communications is offering a free resume writing workshop to help those who are out of work or hoping to change jobs.

The session will be held on Feb. 2 at the school in Manchester from 5:30-7:30 p.m.

Instructor David Yudkin of Creative Professional Resumes will cover everything from what information should and should not be included in a resume to how the information should be organized. He'll also offer proven tips on what helps a resume stand out and be noticed.

The session is free, but space is limited, so registration is required.
