

Loeb School Offers Social Media: Just for the Fun of It

MANCHESTER _ The Nackey S. Loeb School of Communications is offering a half-day workshop to help unlock the mysteries of one of today's fastest-growing methods of communications, Facebook.

The workshop, "Social Media: Just for the Fun of It," is being offered twice at the school on Saturday, March 6. (Snowdate: March 13). The first session runs 9-noon and will be repeated from 12:30-3:30. The fee is $30 per person.

Instructor Judi Window of 311 Management Services will concentrate on using Facebook at home – to keep up with family and friends. The workshop also will include easy-to-use ideas for organizing your desktop, finding links and video and keeping your online world simple!

The session is intended for people who want to set up Facebook accounts, or who already have one, but want to learn ways to use it better.

The workshop is limited to 25 students. For more details and to register, go to www.loebschool.org or call 627-0005.

The Nackey S. Loeb School of Communications, Inc., admits students of any race, color, sex, age, religion, national and ethnic origin to all of the rights, programs and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school. It does not discriminate on the basis of race, disability, color, sex, age, religion, national and ethnic origin in administration of its educational policies, admissions policies, scholarship and loan programs and athletic and other school administered programs