

Loeb School offers workshop on photos for PR

MANCHESTER _ The Nackey S. Loeb School of Communications is offering a one-day workshop designed to help businesses and non-profits enhance their image and spruce up websites or newsletters with memorable photos.

Photography for Public Relations will be presented at the school in Manchester on July 12, from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Award-winning photographer Geoff Forester will offer proven tips on how to take photos that will help tell your business or non-profit's story in print or on the web. The workshop includes camera basics, taking good photos and selecting photos that best tell your story. Students will need a digital camera.

The registration fee of $60 includes lunch.

Register or get more information at www.loebschool.org or by calling 627-0005.
