Smartphones for Smart Photos Workshop at Loeb School

The Nackey S. Loeb School of Communications' newest workshop is designed to help you take smarter photos with your smartphone.

Smartphones - Smart Photos, from 9-3:30 on September 14 covers the basics, including how to hold the phone and use the elements around you to capture special images.

Instructor Debi Rapson is a semi-professional photographer who wins praise for her ability to translate technology into easy-to-understand terms for students of all ages.

The $60 registration fee includes lunch.

For more information, or to register, go to www.loebschool.org or call 627-0005.
